

We are now looking for submissions for the
SPACES YEARBOOK 2017

You are invited to submit any project which has received an element of public funding. Submissions are invited nationally and can include:

- New building and refurbishment projects across the public sector
- Buildings that add value to the communities they serve
- Buildings from all sectors of public construction
- Projects that demonstrate collaboration
- Projects that demonstrate Engineering excellence/ingenuity
- Surveying projects that renew embedded value
- Examples of construction team excellence
- Articles of interest on public sector buildings

Anyone can make a submission whether you are the client, architect, contractor, engineer or surveyor who feels there is merit in a particular building or project.

CLOSING DATE FOR SUBMISSIONS – FRIDAY 10TH FEBRUARY 2017

SPACES YEARBOOK 2017

Application Form

Brief description of the project (approx 50 words)

Please include 5 high quality photos which 'sell' and show the full extent of the project: (type, size, location). Imagery including people, which show the building in use, would also be beneficial. Any relevant and available supporting documentation such as project data sheets, EPC's, study papers etc. should also be included.

A large, empty, light grey rectangular box intended for the applicant to provide a brief description of their project and upload supporting documentation as instructed in the text above.

We are also interested this year in hearing from anyone who might wish to contribute an article of interest on public building related issues. If you have any such proposals please use the area above to outline your thoughts.

Please email awardsspaces@gmail.com with your completed submission form and photographs.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES IS 10TH FEBRUARY 2017
