

Making a Reality of a 2020 Vision for Modular and Offsite Design

A4LE and SPACES, in partnership with

The University of Westminster School of Architecture and Cities

17th March 2020

35 Marylebone Road, London

ASSOCIATION FOR
LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS
Enhancing the Educational Experience

UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

This event focuses on the impact of off-site construction on the client and the design team. We will explore the contemporary demands of learning spaces and what is currently working and not working in modular and off-site design.

Courtesy: Mid Group, Bond Bryan

09.30 - Registration: Tea, Coffee

09.45 - Welcome: Alastair Blyth and Terry White

10.00 - Global overview of learning spaces: Alastair Blyth, Principal Lecturer, UoW.

10.15 - Spaces for Future Focussed Schools: Terry White, Chair A4LE UK/Europe

10.45 - Developments in off-site, modular and innovative construction: William McLean, Principal Lecturer, UoW

11.15 - Review

12.00 - Lunch

12.45 - Choosing the right approach for the project: Paul Inch, Director BD Solutions and SPACES

13.00 - Challenging the Process: how to free minds and budgets: Andrew Shepherd, CEO Mid Group

13.20 - Rising to the Challenge: why the profession can lead the way: Zubin Masters, Bond Bryan (Architects)

13.40 - Q & A

14.00 - Engaging the Client: The Greatfields School, three years on: Emily King, Mid Group

14.30 - Break

14:45 - Delivering Tufnell Park School: Claire Barton, Haverstock (Architects) and Martin Scarborough, Headteacher

15:15 - Review of the day

15:30 - Leave for Tufnell Park School

16:15 - Tufnell Park School Site Visit

17:15 - Close

Tickets Available Via Eventbrite: <http://pow-a4le.eventbrite.com/>

Courtesy: Haverstock